

Introduction to Peacemaking Circles ~ September 30th - October 2nd, 2022

The Circle Center invites you to attend a 2 1/2-day Introduction to Peacemaking Circles Training. If you are interested in learning an effective, low-cost/ high-value tool for group facilitation, consensus building and community & team strengthening, this training is for you. Whether you are a manager, organizational leader, parent, community member or professional, as a participant in this Circle Process training you will:

- Learn techniques for facilitating, encouraging and sustaining meaningful dialogue & cognitive diversity in your organization.
- Experience facilitating groups in both personal and professional settings.
- Develop and refine empathy, trust building and group facilitation skills.
- Gain an understanding of group facilitation and how it can be an integral tool for individuals, organizations and communities and the missions, goals and populations they serve.
- Discover applications for community and team building, strategic visioning, conflict resolution, organizational development and much more.
- Become a resident expert within your organization or community on group facilitation.
- Understand how Circles are a cornerstone methodology and tool for group conflict management, collective impact and restorative practices.

Details for the 2 1/2-day Circle Facilitator Training:

Friday, Sept. 30th	1:00 - 5:00
Saturday, Oct. 1st	9:00 - 5:00
Sunday, Oct. 2nd	10:00 - 5:00

Location: Scarritt-Bennett Center ~ Nashville, Tennessee

Cost: $500. $100 discount, per participant, if multiple participants attend from same organization.

For more information or to register, contact Tracy Roberts:

Tracy@thecirclecenter.com