NINA MOREL, ,ED.D., PCC
LEADERSHIP AND MINDFULNESS

Nina Morel, Ed.D., is Executive Director of Leadership Development and Coaching and a professor of management at Lipscomb University. Morel is an International Coaching Federation PCC-certified leadership coach who has wide experience coaching executives in higher education, government, and nonprofit organizations. She has developed and led innovative coaching programs as well as competency-based online undergraduate and graduate programs as a university dean. As a district administrator, Morel created and led large-scale coaching and ESL initiatives.

Morel is the author of Learning from Coaching: How do I work with an instructional coach to grow as a teacher? (ASCD, 2014); How to Build an Instructional Coaching Program for Maximum Capacity (Corwin, 2012, with co-author Carla Cushman); and Redefining Competency-Based Education: Competence for Life (Business Expert Press, 2018, with co-author Bruce Griffiths).

Her areas of scholarly interest include Competency Based Education, coaching, habit development, and improving leadership through meditation and mindfulness practices. Morel has a doctorate and masters degree from Tennessee State University and is a Lipscomb University undergrad alum. She believes leadership is conversation, and healthy conversations lead to healthy and productive communities and businesses. In addition to her teaching and coaching, Morel serves in Lipscomb University's Recovery Ally program, where she supports and advocates for students in addiction recovery programs.

ICFTN has a shared commitment to diversity, inclusion and belonging as we work to make coaching an integral part of a thriving society.
